

FROM UR OF CALDEA TO BETHLEHEM OF JUDAH

Mission 5. Greece and Rome

Research 2. Greco-Roman Crossword

Across

1. A Roman god who named a planet near the Earth and can be easily seen at night. Besides, this planet is red, like the colour of the blood that is shed in a war. And, another clue, a weekday is named after it.

6. The god of wine, dance and feasts. This one, is never bored. He's very outgoing but forgetful, why does he always say he doesn't remember my name because of some terrible headache?

8. Undoubtedly, the god of gods, the supreme, the magnificent, the excelsus, the greatest, the best of the supermen (I hope I don't get him angry and he doesn't send me a lightning with all these compliments).

9. The god of the Dead. He's not very cheerful, not very positive. Besides, he is always with a extremely pale face, more than bleached clothes. Maybe, it's because his feet stink like dead...

10. goddess of the Arts and War. She's quite funny.

11. A goddess so beautiful that Romans decided to name a planet after her, a planet which shines brightly since the first morning hours and they dedicated one of your favourite days to her.

13. The Roman god of the Dead. He's so cold that they named the last planet of the solar system after him, the smallest, farthest and coldest planet.

14. Clue: There is a well-known fountain in Madrid dedicated to this Roman god.

Clue 2: If you like football and you are of those who think that Atlético de Madrid is the best team in the world, you must have gone to this fountain in Madrid sometime to celebrate its victories.

15. He's a god who liked feasts and drinking very much.

16. She's the goddess of love and beauty. She's a conceited goddess. She's always saying that she looks divine.

17. He's the god of music, poetry and medicine. Apart from that, we know that his friends love ice cream.

Down

2. The goddess of hunting and fertility. She never missed anything to eat.

3. A clue: the name of this Roman goddess is the origin of the name "Denia". A very famous and popular English princess who died in 1998 was named like her. Can you guess?

4. He's the god of the sea and he's very important. There is a film of a sinking ship with his name.

5. He's the god of war. No joking with him, just in case.

7. Another Roman god with a weekday and a planet named after him (a planet with, at least, 3 satellites). It was logical, he was the most important god in Rome.

9. The god of fire and volcanoes. They say that he was the only god in the Olympus who never complained about the cold in winter. They say he invented barbecues, or so they say ...

11. This Roman god is called like the place he lived, places quite, quite, quite hot.

12. She was the Roman goddess of Arts and war. She was skillful and fought like anyone who was necessary.

GRECO-ROMAN GODS: CROSSWORD

Welcome to the world of Greek and Roman Gods! Try to solve this crossword with the names of the gods and goddesses we have just studied. Good luck!

The crossword puzzle grid consists of 17 numbered starting points for words:

- 1: 5-letter word starting at the top left.
- 2: 4-letter word starting at the top left, overlapping with 1.
- 3: 3-letter word starting at the top.
- 4: 3-letter word starting at the top right.
- 5: 3-letter word starting at the top right.
- 6: 5-letter word starting in the middle.
- 7: 5-letter word starting in the middle.
- 8: 3-letter word starting in the middle.
- 9: 5-letter word starting in the middle.
- 10: 5-letter word starting in the middle.
- 11: 5-letter word starting in the middle.
- 12: 3-letter word starting on the left side.
- 13: 5-letter word starting in the middle.
- 14: 5-letter word starting on the left side.
- 15: 3-letter word starting in the middle.
- 16: 8-letter word starting at the bottom.
- 17: 3-letter word starting at the bottom left.

Two illustrations are present: a standing figure with multiple arms (likely a deity) at the top right, and a small, horned, ogre-like creature (likely a satyr or centaur) at the bottom center.